Homes for Sale

3445 Aubusson Trace

George and Christine Prattes still have their home at 3445 Aubusson Trace for sale with Jenny Pruitt Realtor. Since the holidays, there has been quite a bit of activity, but the house is STILL for sale. We are trying to keep the price 'reasonable' in the hope that people will realize that homes in Glastonberry do not have to 'be given away' but will bring a fair and reasonable price. Hopefully we can continue to keep our price so that future sales in the neighborhood can benefit too. Homes our size (3,200 to 3,600 sq ft) are still selling in the mid to upper $400's without the lot sizes that we all have. It just takes that 'one right person' to pay the price which will then affect all of us for future sales.
