Notes from the Board

We have had a great start to the new swim season. Great job for those who helped out with the cleanup day. We will be doing other things in the fall so stay tuned.

Many thanks to Andria Parker for organizing the Memorial Day party. Everyone had fun especially the kids. Thanks to Jim Johnson for coordinating the resurfacing of the tennis courts.

Parents, please talk with your children concerning the swim/tennis area. We have had vandalism which in turn costs us money. Also, children should not be playing with the rocks. If you see any child/teenager do something that they should not it is everyone's responsibility to stop the activity. Everyone needs to stay off the pinestraw hills. The parking lot / swim / tennis area closes at 11:00. If you see anyone down there after 11:00 call the police.

We have had two "brown" outs at the pool this season (poop in the pool). When this happens the pool must be closed for 24 hours. Parents, please make your young children go to the bathroom hourly.

Animals Free to Good Homes

I have a little Zebra Finch (male) in a brand new cage free to a good home. The little guy and another male in the cage (spice) don't get along and this newest finch (the zebra) needs to be kept separate.

GLASTONBERRY: A REALTOR'S PERSPECTIVE!

As some of you may remember, I was a happy resident of Glastonberry from 1989 to 2001. I have told hundreds of folks about what a unique and fantastic neighborhood Glastonberry is and although I have moved on, I still keep up with the neighborhood and even drive through from time to time. I really enjoyed living there and miss all the good friends and neighbors!

* Do you notice the entrances as you drive into the neighborhood? Are they pressure-washed, trimmed and landscaped? If this is overlooked, you have lost that all-important first impression.

* Does the swim & tennis area sparkle? Are the courts, fences and lights in good shape? Does the pool and pool house shine, inside and out? Are the grounds maintained? Prospective buyers with families place a high priority on these areas.

* How does your yard compare with the other yards in the community? Is your grass happy? Have the trees that were planted in the 1980's grown so large that your house is no longer visible? Are the deer starving because you planted no flowers for them to eat?

* Home maintenance is another entire chapter, but unless all homes are kept fresh and updated, values diminish in the entire neighborhood. When you see something every day, good or bad, it can become invisible to you, so take the time to see your home as a visitor or prospective buyer would see it. How does it stack up? Really?

* * Have your cars seen the inside of your garage lately, or is that area a wasteland of lonely, mysterious items that you don't remember you have? Some neighborhoods require that cars must be kept in the garage; not in the driveway and never in the street. You know, that's not a bad idea! Get rid of that old chair, the crock pot, the fondue set, the non-working TV and everything else that keeps your poor car out in the elements!

Bottom line, old neighbors and friends, is that I lived in Glastonberry and know first-hand what a special neighborhood it is. I would love to see you, speak with you and do everything I can to assist you in keeping your property values up. Please contact me anytime if I can be of help to you, or actually, for any reason at all. I would be thrilled to hear from you! (I'll buy lunch!)

Glastonberry Services

Computer Services and Repairs offered by: Paul H. Pearce 210 Hepplewhite Dr. For rates and information please call 404- 234-3033

Front Entrance Cleanup

Donations $$ are now being accepted for cleanup (phase 2) of the front entrance. The cleanup would take place from the Jacobean entrance around to Jones Bridge Rd. Previous donations were used to hire workers to cleanup between the 2 entrances along Barnwell Road. Take a look-it looks great! This is not a project that I would want to tackle personally. There are lots of poison ivy plants located there. This project would definitely give our neighborhood a much needed "sprucing up".

Donations may be given to: Lisa Broe or Carol Brasher.
